SEVEN CARS IN DITCH

Freight Train Derailed From Broken Flange This Morning—Bridge Was Torn Up.

This morning about 9 o'clock, just north of Price's, fifteen miles north of Palestine, seven cars were derailed on account of a broken wheel flange. No one was injured.

The wrecker went out about 11 o'clock, with materials and a crew to pick up the cars and repair the tracks. Several bents of a bridge were damaged, and will have to be rebuilt. It was reported here that one hundred and fifty bridge ties will be required to make the repairs. All wrecked cars were loaded, three with grain, one with vehicles, one with iron pipe, and the others with various merchandise.

Traffic was delayed a few hours.

THE NIGHT RIDERS.

Motion Pictures at the Lyric Pleased Two Large Audiences.

The management says: "The Night Riders" motion pictures were exhibited at the Lyric Theatre last night by Murry and Murry to two large audiences.

These pictures are realistic portrayals of actual scenes just as they happened at Reelfoot Lake, Tennessee, and throughout the tobacco district of Kentucky, showing the organization of the Night Riders, the captain and leaders of the band, the many crimes they have committed, including the whipping of men who refused to obey their orders, the burning of houses, the destruction of property, etc., and the planning and plotting of the murder of Capt. Quentin T. Rankin and Col. Robert Z. Taylor, two prominent attorneys of Trenton, Tenn., at the night riders' rendezvous near an old saw-dust pile on Reelfoot Lake.

In addition to the Night Riders pictures, the regular bill of motion pictures were exhibited by the Lyric management, and the vaudeville team of Sutton and "Caprice" put on a very laughable singing and dancing comedy sketch.

Tonight Murry and Murry will present the Night Riders pictures again, and there will be an entire and complete change in the regular vaudeville and motion picture programs. No advance in prices.

Tomorrow night (St. Patrick's Day) a special Irish program will be put on by the Lyric, including Irish subjects in motion pictures, Irish illustrated songs and Irish music. Every one attending the Lyric tomorrow night will receive a pretty St. Patrick's Day souvenir.

CULLINAN WAS SHOT.

President of Texas Oil Company Receives a Bullet in His Side.

Houston, Texas, March 15.—J. S. Cullinan, president of the Texas Company, the largest independent oil company in the south, was shot and seriously wounded this afternoon by Harry W. Glass, formerly employed by the Texas Company as tank ganger. The men met on Texas avenue and Fannin street, and after a brief heated conversation, Cullinan pushed Glass against a fence.

The latter broke away and pulling a thirty-eight automatic revolver, fired point blank at Cullinan, wounding him in the left side. Cullinan sprang behind a horse and as Glass sought to fire again, dashed across the street to the Pye Realty company. A crowd prevented Glass from further shooting, and Cullinan was taken home. Glass was arrested.

THE PRICE OF A REVIVAL

By Rev. J. W. Burgin at Centenary Methodist Church—Old-Time Gospel Hymns Sung.

With a strong choir which led a large congregation in the singing of good old-time gospel hymns that made every devotional christian heart respond in giving praise to God and opened up the hearts of unbelievers and caused them to long for the truth, the way and the life, with a message that was a lesson and blessing to every person present, and that led many to respond to the after call, the revival meeting of last night at Centenary Methodist church was an inspiration that heralds a successful and far-reaching spiritual uplift in our midst.

Rev. Burgin is a forceful speaker and he presents the Lord's message in a clear and penetrating manner. His text for last night was found in II Chronicles, 17th chapter, 14th verse. Dealing with the truth as there set forth he called attention to the fact that a price of great or less amount is required to be paid for anything of a temporal nature and also that our Lord requires a price to be paid by his people before "He will hear from heaven, and forgive our sins, and heal our land." Thus God offers a revival in our midst; if it is wanted it may be acquired, but He sets the price. Are we willing to pay it? Let us see what is required.

First. We must humble ourselves by subjecting our pride, by tearing the beast sin from our breasts, that awful enemy which is sometimes shielded by pride and allowed to eat its way into our very vitals. To do this requires courage, grit, manhood or womanhood and a willingness to crucify our vanity to serve God. He can use us if we will; He cannot, if we will not.

Second. We must pray. Pray until we pray, until our prayers go above our heads, till God sees our earnestness and our need. Do you pray? Mothers, do you pray for your family; are you storing up for your children an heritage greater than any other thing in life, something that will last through eternity? Fathers, do you pray? No. Then do you curse? If you do, then you pray, for what is swearing but calling upon God to dam whatever is the object of your displeasure. Sad, indeed, is the home that has a praying mother and wife and a husband that is pulling the other way, but sadder still is the home that has no prayer at all. Prayer is a wonderful influence in a home and our Lord sets it apart as part of the price for His blessings. At some time in life every one prays; sorrow forces us to pray, but why wait for that? Pay this part of the price now.

Thirdly. We must seek God's face. All christians want to see God's countenance. If you never have a deep desire to look upon Him and to commune with Him, then you do not love Him. Seek His face and receive some of His glorious beauty.

Fourthly. Turn from the wicked way. When in sin we are miserable; we are in torment on earth, for sin separates us from God. Then why not drop sin and give your heart to your Savior? If we will humble ourselves, pray in the spirit of prayer, seek God's face and commune with Him and turn from our sins, then we will have a great and glorious revival, and not only will one denomination be benefitted thereby but the Lord will gather a harvest into all of the churches, and the whole community will receive a blessing. Baraca.
